Jeffrey:

Thank you, again, for taking the time to briefly meet with me today. As requested, I will work on drafting a preliminary contract during my flight home to Boston tomorrow and send it to you for your review and comment.

I would also suggest to you that, with respect to your overall goals on the Public Relations side of things in the USVI we should meet to go over a few questions / desired outcomes from your point of view / and in more dept develop a strategy from your point of view, followed by developing an overall plan to achieve said goals and objectives;

Once we have a rough action plan in place I can fly down to meet you in West Palm Beach or I can coincide my upcoming USVI travel to meet up with you again at a point convenient for you.

As referenced above, I will forward a draft contract for your review / edits / additions when I get home to Boston and upon receipt of a final / edited draft document back from you, I will plan to meet you based on your schedule.

Talk to you soon and I also look forward to seeing you soon

McGee

P.S. – Please forward me the contact information for Andrew Farkus (Island Global Yachting) at your convenience
