just got a note from bob pirie who asked me if i thought murray gell man would make a good candidate for the zodiac.

as you know it's one of those last secret type societies. the zodiac is one of the really cool ones there are 12 members at any one time and it is still very secret. they do really cool stuff - but mostly since they are all very old - it's just dinners in exotic locations. i can't tell you all the 12 members bc i don't know who they all are but i know paul volker is one. some guy named howdy whose family owns stuyvesant town, bob pirie and i think tom brokaw. bob represents cancer (the sign not the month). you are a member until your death but if you get senile they can put you into "eccentric orbit" and not invite you to meetings etc. anyway the only way to get in is if someone dies. there are obviously no minorities or women allowed. anyway let me know what you think...

finally leaving west africa tonight finally. let me know when you get your postcard. you will hopefully laugh a lot... miss you
