Paris!nice!

I know what I want and I am gona do it. Sooner or later. when I make plans I make them reality. My plan was come here, settle, make money for my classes and university, study and work in health care and beauty field after. And I m gona do it.

You should understand that I m on my plan, I got settled and now I m trying to make money and on my spare time I do research on my studies, so I m on my plan.

I don't know if you will support me or no so I need to have my secure plan too.

I told you that you came to my life like the person that makes dreams come true, but you can always change your mind.

Say hello to Simona!!!

Im off to Paris. . iIm surprised that you haven't taken any classes , since may. Reading at Barnes and Noble , im sure occupies your time, but without a structure and specific purpose , you can read and enjoy your time , but will be unlikely to achieve the new skills you said you want. I . I thought you were serious about education, that means teachers. test.s , measures of success etc. it does not mean accumulating facts that you may find interesting . it is hard to know what the field really requires without proper instruction. I realize you pride yourself , in your independence , and strong will. I have been willing to help you , but i thought we had an understanding that you also had to do your part. It seems you feel strongly that you know the way. Im not sure what evidence there is to justify your certainty . Hopefully , we can sit together when i return,, ps. simona will come to paris this week as well.
