Subject: Sunday morning flight

We are checked in for tomorrows flight. I will check Jen in once we have spoken to her and seen that she is definitely ok. (Unless you would prefer me to just go ahead and do it now)
Our boarding time is 8.30am and we are flying out of JFK. I think if we get there at 8 am it should be sufficient. Jojo says it should take us approximately half an hour to get to the airport. Do you still want to leave at 7am or should we make it 7.15?

Your boarding pass will be in your passport in your black bag.
