The good news is that it is now up a point from where we bought it. The bad news is we didn't pick up any more on the dip.

I have had 2 other clients inquire about corn over the last 2 days, and MS issued a bullish report on July 23rd. It is trading at 58.25. We are long at 57.25.

If it dips to 56 we should add.
