Jeff,

I was driving with [REDACTED] from orvieto to rome the other day and they started to get silly in the car. I told them that when you and I would do certain things Grandma Paula would tell us that she was raising two dummies.
(I didn't want to use the term 'idiot' yet with them). I said "Grandma Paula would call us the big dummy and the little dummy". Without missing a beat, [REDACTED] said "I can see why she'd call you a big dummy". He'll be [REDACTED]

I was cracking up for the entire rest of the ride.
