Jeffrey, Option "A"

AAG price is still high, even with our contracted 10% discount applied to their $12,960.00 quote would bring the price to $11,664.00 since they are dropping you at Washington CT and coming back to pick you up.

Option "B" Darren's Bell 430 would do the trip for total of $3,600.00 (plus I can fly co-pilot in the Bell 430), we would keep the helicopter all day at Washington CT in case you wanted to depart earlier. what do you think?

ps: I spoke to Doctor Cameron Brown, owner of the landing sight in Washington CT, he is contacting the Mayflower Inn to find out what type of conference, and who is attending, Doctor Brown told me the town is very noise sensitive to helicopters, but thought if this was a big event, he would allow us to land at his sight.

thanks,
Larry
