Subject: flight tomorrow

Hi Jeffrey. Great meeting today. I am writing up a summary of what we discussed, and will send some new sketches at the end of next week.

I heard back from my secretary that if I miss the first leg of my return flight tomorrow, the airline will automatically cancel the second leg, and that flight is full. I appreciate the offer of a lift on your plane to Miami, but can't make it this time. Hopefully next trip will work!

I am meeting with the licensing agency tomorrow, and hope to get that cleared up while I am here.

It was great to meet you.
Thanks.

Thanks,
