I don't mind you being tough. I didn't say a 'few weeks' and Nat knows Ivan very well and he must have added the last para for a reason. In any case, it cannot just drift on because I have to sort myself out (as you keep telling me....) x

I am sympathetic to your uncertainty.. If I am too tough, I will stand down.. I am trying to be responsible to you. I am disappointed by the DB revelation, and concerned with Ivan's lack of enthusiasm. Tim Collins is looking better and better. ... Time is of the essence. I would let it be known that you are being approached with interesting opportunities. maybe during your book tour. I strongly believe that telling Ivan that you have two to three weeks in which to make a decision gives him an all too easy -out. He will come back and say that they won't take any decision in such a short period of time,-- so good luck with your alternatives. and keep in touch.
