Yes I am very aware that it was.

interested in learning about TVPA laws, ask your criminal attorneys who are representing you and Google the mandate per State since each varies. Thank you for updating me on the 16 year old consent law.

As you know lack comes from a spiritual emptiness rather than physical-- which eventually manifests in the material.

So whatever we do in this lifetime and how we live our life is important in the big picture because our journey creates many ripples --some good and some not so good. Given your many blessings and abundance you have an even greater responsibility than most to create waves of prosperity.

As you know the law of energy and attraction are the two most powerful and ongoing physical laws.

I suppose it is immaterial to you except that the repercussions of your actions will carry over and impact future generations and society for many years to come. I am truly saddened that all of this ugliness occurred to someone I know and had great regard for.
