hi.. in phoenix.. leave tomorrow for NYC.. will you be there? am there 11-14.. then head to seattle for 3 days to be at Inst. for nucl. theory (and be with nancy), then off to canberra till end of the month.. visiting Australian Natl. University (and being with nancy of course.. :) ). btw I was just awarded some fancy fellowship at Melbourne for next year.. a month next august.. you will have to come visit... hellish week here saving a dying computer server and getting a new stable email server up and running, but did it just before the end of the week so now I should be secure that way.... then unpacking 15 years of boxes in new office.. or at least organizing the unpacking and leaving the really hard stuff for my assistant.. surrounded by boxes here at home too.. seems never ending.. and am trying to get work done in the midst of this..
How about you? I wish I could be around for your freedom day.

today... so things are moving, both metaphorically and literally.. wanted to let you know I talked to Nancy.. we agreed.. thanks for the offer of the paying for the flight, but that is not necessary.. Hitching along with you on your plane and having a chance to talk etc was the fun part of the plan... not the free ride... :) we will have to do that sometime.
