Subject: hi

I'll go for few days to Romania to bring everything I need to London.

My boyfriend bought a flight ticket for me.

I'll move in today, later this afternoon to the new apartment, I'm still at my friends place, she will help me move later.

I haven't discussed yet anything with Findus about the salary or the program. Do you think I should ask now, or wait until I'll start on 12th of july?

kisses
