I'm the happiest girl alive!!! You can't imagine! It went great! And in a couple of weeks I will start! The CMO presented me the possibilities I have in the company, and everything is so interesting! I'll probably work on the news project they have, coming with a product appropriate for children (and not finger fish) and try to convince the mothers that is very healthy for their kids. I'll probably have to do field research (to travel in the countries that findus group has branches) and trying to understand the consumers and their needs. I'm so happy u can't imagine!!! Thank you so much!!!

Now probably b4 starting I'll go for a few days home to bring all the things I need to live here.

I found a nice place to rent, in a safe area, actually just a room in a house, I'll go today to see it. Hopefully will be ok. Is a bit expensive (150€ a week+ bills) but it has good tube connections and is close to work( 15minutes!) :)

Thank you thank you thank you!!!!

Xxx
