Will do later. [REDACTED] mother died just after midnight Monday am. She was at home and [REDACTED] had been living there for the last 5-6 weeks to take care of her so she would not have to go to Hospice. It was a slow and undignifying decline, so it was grueling on [REDACTED]. Her older sister from Wisconsin has been here 4 months and was also in the home. She has been a trooper also, but admits that in the last 3 days, she could not take it and only went in to help move, change or clean up their mother. [REDACTED] did not leave the room for two days, talking to her dying mother and rubbing her and holding her hand. Focus is on taking care of this business right now.

Hope you have a good T-Day planned. Must be good not having to look over your shoulder, but sometimes it is hard to get out of the habit. Let me know if I can be of any type of help to you. Tell [REDACTED] hello for me.
