As requested I, along with Bill Rowles visited Bolongo to look over scope of work in regard to painting.

the exterior paint of the Bolongo house is in pretty good shape, would recommend power wash and then paint the trim, stairs/railings and some site walls

The interior was completely painted last year, Dave has ask for some paint to touch up curtain area's but nothing major have attached photo's for your review.

should we proceed with this approach or do you still wish for the house to be completely painted
