J, i don't enjoy bringing these things up, but i'd be very grateful if you could re-imburse me again for my expenses, running around etc... Also, I must ask whether the worlds best island view has earned you enough money yet for me to take a comission on earnings... the likes of which we spoke about.

Put the other way, it will help , really help offset some of my costs which will help me to take care of what is necessary and important for my life over the next six-months and I guess I'm hoping that you see my commitment to the Island and your ventures as efficient enough of a contribution to warrant it.

call anytime..
