Thought best to put all in the loop. Larry and I spoke after the email from Darren today. My suggestion is the email be put on hold and have Howard arrange a face to face or telephonic meeting to resolve the confusion between 750 and the D. That should produce a true final number , that JEE can either accept or reject.

Trying to view this from both sides I think that type meeting will give closure. We have all worked hard on this and I think this final shot is worth taking.

Please cc all so each side understands the decision of the other.

If nothing changes by 3 PM Friday I assume Sikorsky then has their marching orders.
