Must say I agree with you. Abram did tell me though that the panel we received was the un-worked one and the one being treated was on it's way - for whatever that means. When Robert and I left the island that time we took with us only one panel that they were to send to paris, so the tale of the other one I'm still struggling to understand

i hope you are feeling better. I am disappointed about the outcome of our relationship.. You have left me in a strange position , the panel that we waited three weeks for was returned un changed.. I have asked that we speak, but have yet to have a return phone call from you , I am surprised.
