mime part 1.eml

Dear Ma'am,

Please can you give me an update on what's happening re the money I was supposed to receive this week. You said that I was to receive all the money that I am owed - both in unpaid salary and for things I expensed for you – but nothing has come through yet.

I haven't received any payment/repayment of monies since February 2010. As a result I simply cannot survive much longer - the situation is that desperate now. My bank account is completely empty. I have nothing at all to live on. I've sold everything I can (TV, stereo etc) to keep going and will have to give up my apartment in the next few weeks too. I really need something, anything, to be sent through urgently to keep me afloat.

I of course also have Columbia University to deal with. I'm officially suspended and can't resume classes until I pay them in full with the money that you owe me.

I try to get through to Helen but she doesn't return my emails or calls so I have no idea at all what's going on. Any update from you will be much appreciated.

Lots of love,

Johnny xx
