my cells are [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] have you given any thought to buying all the beatles publishing rights now that guy hand and emi are heading down the tubes? (i've become good pals with tom sturges, head of creative at universal music, who nominated me for a governorship at the national academy of recording arts & sciences last month)....

did you get the recently digitally remastered LPs that were released several months ago? stereo and mono sets...mccartney was involved in the remastering....unfortunately, george martin's hearing loss precluded his participation...

wish me luck tomorrow at geffen/ucla neuroscience/neurology grand rounds...here's a clip from my talk at duke's music/brain symposium - unbeknownst to me someone taped it and posted it on the web...i better not hit any clunkers with sturges in the room or my rep as a lead guitarist will be out the window! <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gviCJw3BqfQ>

he hospital walls aren't particularly cell-friendly - if you happen to call when i'm in its bowels, please leave a message and i'll call back, if you'd like to give me a range of times and a number or two to connect on the weekend now, please send along and i'll give a holler as i'm driving past the colony on the pchxxx
