i had to come straight back here (a week early at that) to deal with a book crisis, i.e. the publisher did not accept this version of my book so i expect to keep spending a boring summer here (with a side trip to brazil in late july); my ft lauderdale son is visiting me right now for a few more days as soon as i plan to be in your area, i will be in touch all the best

robert
