Title: Re: greetings from FEOY 2010 I sure hope so! Since American Express is the new sponsor then we are playing it all by the ear. However, NYC is definitely on the agenda in the near future.

Dear Jeffrey,

Hope all is well.

I have heard a lot of great things about you through Barbro and I would like to introduce myself. My name is Saana Azzam and I am Female Economist of the Year!
Wow, sounds great just writing it!

I am certain that we will meet at some point in time. The ceremony is coming up on Monday and it will be a beautiful event held at a castle. I am sure you will see some photos of that.

I wish you all the best,

Saana

Ps. I have attached a press photo as well.
