After conversation with Tito – general manager at Honstein Oil, we will receive 9.9% discount on Diesel fuel and 9.8% discount on Supreme fuel. The first delivery of fuel with a discount rate will be today December 2, 2010. The price on the invoice will represent the discounted price. I am not so comfortable with this presentation as I am not able to see the price at the pump. I ask for a better way to show the discount on the invoice. If you have any suggestion please let me know.
