I have placed all these people's names and web sites in our directory. Did you want me to find email addresses for them or find out how you can contact them?

Good to talk-

here are a few names in the brain/neuroscience:

Pasko Rakic, (you need to talk to him to hear what he is doing in areas of interest; it is not evident from his site)
<http://rakiclab.med.yale.edu/>

Richard Anderson (again, one needs to talk; he is doing a lot of advanced stuff off the record for DoD, he might admit...or not)
<http://www.vis.caltech.edu/>

Ralph Adolphs (again, more than what is written...the pattern among neuroscientists is a little spooky)
<http://biology.caltech.edu/Members/Adolphs>

All these guys are good at what they do, and can be deep...

More soon, esp. details on Santa Fe.

B.
