is coming along great.. Just landed in L.A. from Oz on way back to PHX.. dyson, chris mackay, altman and I hope venter will do public panel.. and be at workshop.. Freeman Dyson has conflict but is checking..

So, regarding our April extravaganza.. Stephen Hawking is coming April 8th to 15th to visit Origins as a part of it.. and he is coming in from Texas.. They are covering his jet from cambridge to Tex, and from PHX back to cambridge.. I have to cover tx to phx.. I have a quote from hawking's people for $29,800 for that leg.. Is there any way you might be interested in flying to tx and accompanying him (and staying for the weekend's festivities) or covering airfare? He has 5 people and lots of luggage though....
