Dear Jeffrey,

I don't know what you expect is going to happen to us. I do not want to come back in July and get nasty looks from the girls who think you would rather choose to spend time with them over me because you have been having 'affairs' with them while I am gone.

You have been dishonest about other women and as a result I can't trust you. You refused to help rebuild the trust by full disclosure and have no other suggestions.

If we can agree the girls you spend time with over next 2 months, while I am gone, permanently disappear from our lives after July, I don't need to ask any more questions. But otherwise, let's not drag this on. I do not want to be treated like Ghislane - yes, she had a great life except you were cheating on her with me, everyone saw it, felt sorry for her, acted differently when she showed up, made fun of her and treated her like a retard for not seeing it.

I feel resentful about you forcing me to leave and I can't deal with the russian baggage that comes with it.

I love you, I appreciate being able to play with the plane today and I hope you win every battle you are fighting.

Good night
