Hi Jeffrey! How are you? [REDACTED] still didn't get back to me, but I'm sure she will soon, I will keep trying! I'm working on new though!

Take a look at my new videos, actually this News Butterfly TV I'm doing now is a great place to invite new friends, it's really helpful, I already invited a couple of new ones I'm working on to interview them, will send you their videos soon when they are edited..

For now just me..:)

Anyway, just something to entertain myself...

Hope you are having a great time wherever you are, I'm trying my best to have new by the time you come back. And it's not that interesting in NY when you are not here, that's for sure!
