dear jeffrey, thank you for this email. it made me very happy but i hope you know me well enough to know it wasn't necessary. i enjoy immensely all discussions i have with you; i love the questions you ask and especially the way you ask them. it is very refreshing and engaging to talk to you. also, i think there should not be any taboos in science. such questions need to be asked. but it has to be done properly.

I have the utmost respect for both you and your work.. and as you know I am 100% on your team.

i can't possibly explain how much that means to me...

have a good trip to middle east and i hope to see you soon!
