Well...just finished right now our 2 hours meeting! I see in Lyndon a little of you! He was very honest with me, and gave me many advices! He was trying to know me and to understand me...and to find my biggest passion in life! We talked about sales and he considered that is not appropriate for me...but could be a start! He asked if I'm looking for big money from a job or doing unpaid internship! I answered that I'm aware that I'm not at a level that I could earn big money, but I want to achieve that at some point! I said that I see myself in 10 years a successful business woman who owns a house on the river bank of London! :) He considered that I'm very selfconfident...but with no big reasons to believe that. :(

He said he will think and let me know if he has any ideas about what should I do! Meantime I should find a passion...exactly what you've told me in the past...
