Hi Al,

I have asked my administrative assistant to add the Epstein link to my personal website, [REDACTED] and it should be up soon.

The Caltech Particle Theory website is being completely redone and will be replaced. The new one is supposed to be completed soon. I will ensure that the link is added to it at that time. My website could also use some improvements...

We did enjoy our second visit to your amazing home. Thanks!

Best wishes,
John
