Hey jeff. Trust all is well. Don't know where you're spending your time lately, but you are welcome to use the cottage in la jolla anytime. (Lajollacottage.net). The construction, next door to the cottage, is going well. In la jolla now for a couple of days. Let me know if you'd like to use the cottage-anytime. Come out and see what I'm putting my nest egg into! Warren was out here couple of wks ago. Take care, TK
