Thanks very much, at worst ill be there january 19 for a talk: <http://www.rmanyc.org/events/load/871>.

I have two new ideas I'm chasing down with respect to locality. One is partly discussed in a paper, <http://arxiv.org/abs/1007.0718> but a much more radical version of it is in progress.

I look forward to talking soon, catch up sometime. This has been a crazy busy period in which I drastically cut back travel. While I'm sorry for missing friends including you, its paid off a lot in some great new ideas. So there is some good stuff to tell you about when we talk next.

Lee
