Dear Peter,

I was very pleased receiving your mail. The honor was mine too meeting you.

You got it right, Jean Yves and I are trying thru the banking project to open up Congo-Brazzaville to english-speaking world with a view of tapping more finance for the country.

As to the bank in prospect, it is a very sound investment and we need your help to get Qatari or Singaporean interests in. Could you help ?

Please find attached a copy of the Concept Note we talked about.

Very keen to see you soon and have chats on matters of common interest.

Sincerely yours.

Rigobert Roger ANDELY

Dear Rigobert,

I was really pleased to see you again after all these years and to talk about the bank project. I think this is very exciting and will help the country open up more to the 'English-speaking' world as well as be a source of finance for the country and the central african region, and beyond.

I would be happy to do what I can to encourage what you are doing. Do you have an outline prospectus you can send me ? Do not hesitate to ask me and contact me if there is anything you feel I can do to help.

All best

Peter
