This is what is being sent to you, and will be arriving later this week.

It is a signed multiple by the noted artist Patrick Hughes. It is a very cool painting, as it follows you around the room as you walk around, even though it is a static 3D painting. These multiples are highly prized and retail at about 12K. It is our present to you for being so supportive when we got caught in a pinch...

Please check out his web site:

It works because of a switch in motion parallax, so instead of moving in the opposite direction of your travel, it follows you. Your guests will LOVE it!!!

It is getting an enormous reaction here.

Cheers,
