Jeffrey,

I spoke with Custom Supervisor Daniel's in Newark, he said Russia is not a participant in visa wavier program, according to him, no visa is required in passport, the country needs to be a visa wavier approved country, and supposedly UK and Swiss are ok.

, I am in contact with Universal in Houston and their legal team, who did the leg work on our approved Visa Wavier for Hyperion Air, for their opinion also. more info later today,.

thx
larry

Jeffrey,

I will confirm with customs, we are and still should be a visa waiver carrier, so they can fly with us,,,

Also: do you have an estimate when you want to depart paris? I would like to arrive a day early to rest for the departure, instead of landing via airlines then going straight to gulfstream, if possible,

Thank you,

Larry
