Hi les!

So next thurs and fri I will be out of town...monday the 27th I can take the day off from my internship and fill in for u...as far as helping out indefinitely I am definately interested but really only able to do it on tues and fridays...I have one class that I attend on those days from 2:10-3:25...I could come in in the morning and leave for my class than come back...things may change depending on my internship but for now that's all I can do! If I was just at some whatever job I would drop it in a second but the internship is a really terrific opportunity for me...
Anyway, maybe see how Jeffrey feels about the tues and fri schedule and let me know! I will call you in a bit to discuss more...at a board meeting now!
