Sikorsky is planning on bringing one of the AAG ships to display in the booth at NBAA. Since the goal is to sell yours I may be able to convince them to use 750. It would need to be in Atlanta around the 15th and be ready to leave there around the 22nd of October. Certainly will get lot of exposure with buyers. If you are willing I need to offer it up ASAP before they get to firmly committed to the AAG machine. As for cost, AAG costs them nothing they own it, if you want to be paid I need to know the complete amount ASAP

I think this is a great opportunity to find a buyer.

Darren, did you get the revised broker agreement ?

Let me know.
