I let her know: [REDACTED] is only coming to escort Jeffrey on the trip as assistant and we absolutely know she will not be attending any of the events/meetings.

Completely understand on room availability as well as helicopter. We will stay posted to hear from you further

Dear Lesley

Room is tight at our forum, I will see what we can do to accommodate and have noted that they are fine to share a room.

We will need to book their accommodation where we have availability, villas are reserved for the Foreign Ministers and we are still allocating rooms as the invitees details are being forwarded to us.

You understand of course that [REDACTED] will not take part in the forum activities as this is strictly by personal invitation only for high level Foreign Ministers, business attendees and speakers and is being held under Chatham house rule.

With regard to helicopters we have (hopefully) secured the only available helicopters to take our Foreign Ministers in and out of the resort whilst advisors and other attendees business contributors, speakers and moderators will all travel to and from the resort by road in cars we have arranged and have been authorised by our Security services..

Seats in helicopters are very limited in availability and until we have all the timings of the arrivals at Abu Dhabi airport and prioritised I cannot say that there will be available space on a helicopter for Mr Epstein and [REDACTED] from where their aircraft lands (need to know this too please as there is a different airport for jets usually used by private aircraft) - please keep me advised of arrival and departure time and whatever happens we will ensure we will get them to the resort and back to their aircraft on 8th November (or when ever they plan on departing).

Regards
Mary

Mary, Jeffrey is wondering if it would be possible to charter a helicopter from the airport in Abu Dhabi and fly to the resort instead of drive.

Also, not sure on the protocol, but Jeffrey is willing to pay for a suite or a villa and says it is fine for him and [REDACTED] to share a room.
Please let me know if a suite or a villa would be available for them.

Thank you, Lesley
