My boy

What a pleasure to see you on wed and in such fine fettle ' makes you proud to be British ' and very nice to meet your friend Jean Luc for a frog a very nice fellow and please thank him very much for sending me back to deepest darkest Newark with his driver. I've spoken to B B and told him to be in touch I've also asked him to try and get your Goddaughter over to meet with you when your in London.

Thanks for your offer to try and come up with some ideas for me with respect to Vitaganic the two portals are www.vitaganic.com for our b to c market and www.myvitaminclinic.com for b to b basically apart from the individual consumer other professional groups who have shown interest are docs, specialists, chiropractors, personal trainers, gyms, rehab centers, mlm, sports teams, e learning colleges even really weird ones like the DOD and long distance truck drivers I guess anyone with a relevant customer base who wants to customize their own brand with zero inventory.....all ideas gratefully recd and please let me have any questions then Australia here I come.

Vv good to see you keep in touch let me know if you come to S F.

Nick
