Subject: economist article

well, i don't have a password to send you the online version. go pick up this week's economist (sept 4) and see the articles:

1. 2 page story on Jaron (remind me to tell you about his latest misfortune...)
2. Schrodinger's cat and mouse (about quantum cryptography in practice and what a few hackers have done) - I think that the folks working on this would be great to talk to and add to your arsenal of crazy.
