I had another FUN idea and it [REDACTED]. Imagine that...

Also have you read Hawkings new book? Weasly! I get the 11 dimensions part but I think he's being a wuss to sell books and be edgy about "God" vs. "god". Cop out and unlike him?

[REDACTED]

On brains, I had an amazing pt right before I left where we confirmed NMDA receptor antibody encephalitis. Fascinating entirely new field of study and I think will prove to be a more accurate way to understand brain pathology going forward. Sort of like when we used to think electrons or protons were the explanation and then came strange, truth, beauty etc and then came...well...strings (ha).

Ok well I hopped onto tokyo flight [REDACTED] and here till Monday. Talk soon and miss you a lot.
