/ / / PRE-ORDER NOW / / /

D-Link has signed up Amazon <http://amzn.to/theboxeeboxbydlink> (in the US) and Best Buy <http://www.bestbuy.ca/boxee> / Future Shop <http://www.futureshop.ca/boxee> (in Canada) as exclusive pre-order partners for the Boxee Box. As of this morning these sites are accepting pre-orders. People who pre-order through Amazon in the US will receive their Boxee Box before it goes on sale anywhere else.

If youâre still deciding between running Boxee on your computer and getting a Boxee Box, hereâs a few things to consider:

- * it will have access to more HD content than its PC cousin
- * no need for keyboard/mouse in the living room or running a 10ft cable to connect your laptop
- * itâs beautiful, though a bit pointy in parts : )

/ / / BOXEE BOX GOING INTERNATIONAL / / /

We have some good news for people who live in _____ (see list below)! D-Link has decided to go for an International launch rather than just release in the US.

Come this November the Boxee Box will be available in the following countries: the US, Canada, Australia and in Europe â Albania, Austria, Belgium, Bosnia, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Croatia, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Macedonia, Montenegro, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Serbia, Slovenia, Slovakia, Sweden, Switzerland and the UK.

As soon as we have news regarding other countries we will let you know.

Best,
Avner & Team Boxee
