Thanks Jeff, Really...

I have an enormous (and to me most valuable asset), which is my library (it is a phenomenal library, filled with nothing but content books acquired over a lifetime of reading, scores of them inscribed to me), and there is what probably would work better for you, my art collection, modern, illusions, and precolumbian. I don't have the collector gene, so I tend not to collect... I would be happy to put a lien on that, even though the value greatly exceeds the value of the loan. It is impossible to operate literally without any funds...

Soon, this is resolved, but the barrel sucks...

Make it up to you, Truly, you know that...

yours,
me
