Meeting Blackstone (John Studzinski: Senior Managing Director & Global Head of Blackstone Advisory Partners) on Tuesday.

Would love to hear your JPM idea first.

I believe I can

1. set up own (discreet, small, powerful) entity to access key Chinese investors
2. "hire" banks for m&a deal execution in europe and US
3. what is missing is capital to be able to structure deals so co-investments can be made

Can i do this with you (much preferred!!) or JPM ??
