Hello Jeffrey...

Yesterday i went to sleep so early...

How are you?Do you feel better?

I had a very nice day, i made very nice polaroids at the agency and then i had 4 go&sees. all clients liked me! They liked my book and they told me that i will work good in NY.

Karen sad that Friday and Monday its not a time to have castings... So i guess, they just made whatever go sees they could.

But i hope, when they will get good response from clients, they will trust me and send me to bigger clients!
