Indeed! I am in the process of sketching the whole area. I should have the sketches by tomorrow afternoon. Can we wait until then to make our minds? And I absolutely love the white stone. I am also in the process of reviewing the master bath.

Give me until tomorrow afternoon please! Thanks, Robert attached are 3 sketches for your and Robert's review(master bath)

- 1.sketch of tub alcove with questions
- 2.shower/steam with 26" and 52" layout(bench changes?)
3. Robert's suggestion on wall.

Robert also suggested that we do not reuse the existing vanities but get new ones ,white with white tops.

The white stone is 20 week lead time ,I really need to get shop drawings under way.Steam wall and bench are critical decisions.
