Subject: Goodnight : )

Sorry I missed your call. I just got out of Clash of the Titans in 3D. Everything is so much better in 3D! Work was great again. So many things; the detail is amazing! I'm off to bed now, yes, 9:00. I nearly fell asleep in the theater! Waking up early to go to the gym with DB. Maybe it'll help my feet. I got some medical compression socks (I believe that's what they're called, well aka fat-feet/cankle socks) and I was ready to keep going long after the chef dismissed me for the day. So far so good. : ) Goodnight! Thinking of you and I hope your well... Xoxo
