Title: Michael Saylor

This is a description of the guy I told you about with the 160 foot Fed Ship that Jim Coleman introduced me to at Elton John's party at the Oscars. You told me to charge $25,000 for a few lunches and/or dinners...I am meeting him Tuesday in New York.

From Jim Coleman:

Regarding Michael I don't know him that well. What I know is he is a typical computer guy who is trying to break out into social acceptance?? Think he has been taking wrong route from what I can tell and thrown a lot of money and attracting mostly the wrong crowd . When you are running around the world on a global with all the toys and throwing money around it helps but only to a certain degree. Not sure he gets the whole picture. If he pays you enough it could be a good client for you. Hope this is of help. xo jim

I think David Reuben might be a better boat owner (242)...he seems like a more stable new friend.

Will advise after I meet this Michael Saylor.
Leaving Monday morning on Al Taubman's plane...

You looked sensational and seem focused on July 20! Can't wait.
