Dianne Weaver is away on a cruise until the end of the month.

I know Patricia Lebow. She is very political in WPB politics and is especially close to Lois Frankel. She is competent, brusque, and takes no prisoners. On the other hand, she is politically very sensitive and has many irons in the fire, which might affect her willingness to take on the assignment and see it through. Her involvement would interest the papers. That is why I did not mention her.

I have one or two other ideas I will discuss with you. When are you free?

I have another suggestion. Patricia Lebow. She is managing partner at a large local firm (Broad & Cassel) and very capable from what I hear. I have met her a few times, but most of my contact with her was when I was on the re-election committee for Ric Bradshaw with her. Ask about her.

How's everything else?
