Here's the sound of a shoe dropping...

The Collier's mother's house ([REDACTED]) sold yesterday to Darcie Kassewitz (Malcolm Glazer's daughter) for $20,500,000. That is considered a strong price ($100,000 per lakefront foot). The property is deep and pretty and the house well-maintained and waspy ... but it reads like [REDACTED]. Mr Read (Mrs Collier's longtime second husband) had been living there. Obviously, this is what they were doing rather than negotiating on 350.

Mr Read is still living and I am finding out where he is moving. The Colliers said visiting him was a reason they kept [REDACTED]. I am not sure if the sale of [REDACTED] makes owning [REDACTED] more or less important to them. I will find out.

That price may make the think [REDACTED] is more valuable than we do.

I am finding out.
